DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

Species A, shown in figures 5-7 is drawn to a method of welding using a first electrode in contact with a metal cap and a second electrode in contact with a bottom surface of an insulating substrate wherein the second electrode is in contact with metallic vias that pass through the substrate which are in contact with a metal layer.

Species B, shown in figures 8-13 is drawn to a method of welding using a first electrode in contact with a metal cap and a second electrode in direct contact with a metal layer (not through metallic vias in the insulator substrate).

Sub-species C, shown in figure 8 is a Sub-Species of Species B drawn to a method of welding where the second electrode is concentric about the metal layer.

Sub-species D, shown in figures 9-11 is a Sub-Species of Species B drawn to a method of welding where the second electrode comprises multiple "fingers" that contact the metal layer at various distinct points.

Sub-species E, shown in figure 12 is a Sub-Species of Species B drawn to a method of welding where the second electrode comprises multiple fingers that surround and form a perimeter about the metal layer.

Sub-species F, shown in figure 13 is a Sub-Species of Species B drawn to a method of welding where the second electrode comprises multiple fingers that are attached to the sidewalls of the insulator substrate.

Species G, drawn to a rectangular or square shaped cap and substrate (see page 10, lines 30-31).

Species H, drawn to a circular, oval, or curved shaped cap and substrate (see page 10, lines 30-31).

Applicant must elect the following:

One of either Species A or Species B, AND one of either Species G or Species H.

Furthermore, should applicant elect Species B, applicant must further elect one of Sub-Species C, D, E, or F.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claim 1 is generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Derek L. Dupuis whose telephone number is (571) 272-3101. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday - Friday 8:30am-4:30pm.
